

International Conference
'APPLICATION OF THE SUCCESSION REGULATION IN THE EU MEMBER STATES'

Venue: Faculty of Law and Administration of the University of Silesia, Hall no. 7
(Wydział Prawa i Administracji Uniwersytetu Śląskiego, Aula nr 7)
Katowice, ul. Bankowa 11B
12 September 2019

10:00 – 10:15 – Welcoming remarks

10:15 – 12:00 – Part I. Lectures. Member States' experiences with the Succession Regulation

Andrea Bonomi, Relationship between the Succession Regulation and the new Regulations on Matrimonial Property and Registered Partnership

Christian Kohler, Application of the Succession Regulation by the German Courts – Selected Issues

Maksymilian Pazdan, Maciej Zachariasiewicz, Highlights and Pitfalls of the Succession Regulation

12:00 – 13:30 – Lunch

13:30 – 15:00 – Part II. Panel discussion. Delimitation between succession law and other applicable laws

(Presided by Andrea Bonomi)

Stefania Bariatti, The Capacity and the Quality of a Heir. Possible Interaction with Preliminary Questions

Tomasz Kot, Where is a Borderline of Succession Law? A Dilemma of European Notaries Dealing with the Succession Regulation

Paul Lagarde, The Scope of the Succession Regulation and the Reserved Share

Krzysztof Pacuła, The Principle of a Single Estate and Its Role in Delimiting the Applicable Laws

15:00 – 15:30 – Coffee break

15:30 – 17:00 – Part III. Panel discussion. Jurisdiction and the free movement of judgments and other instruments covered by the Succession Regulation

(Presided by Cristina González Beilfuss)

Jürgen Basedow, The term 'Member State' within the meaning of Article 39 of the Succession Regulation

Marcin Margoński, Recording Heirs with ESC, Court Decisions or Authentic Documents from other Member States in National Property Registers

Piotr Rylski, The Influence of Bilateral Treaties with Third States on Jurisdiction and Recognition of Decisions in Matters of Succession – Polish Perspective

Michael Wilderspin, The interpretation of the term 'court' in the Regulation and its consequences for the rules on jurisdiction